

Health Contract Negotiations and Review

Our attorneys are experts in drafting and negotiating health services contracts, including third party administrator, insurer, Health Maintenance Organization (HMO), and prescription benefit manager contracts, as well as those between managed care organizations and health care providers. We have extensive experience protecting our clients' interests through careful drafting and vigorous negotiation of protective indemnity, subrogation, and right to reimbursement provisions.