

T: 202-861-6617
F: 202-659-4503
E: tfitzgerald@groom.com

Thomas F. Fitzgerald
Principal

PRACTICES

Health and Welfare
Litigation
Multiemployer/Taft-Hartley Plans

EDUCATION

J.D., Georgetown University Law
Center
M.B.A., Loyola University

BAR & COURT ADMISSIONS

District of Columbia

Thomas F. Fitzgerald specializes in various aspects of employee benefits law, particularly health care and litigation matters. He is a frequent speaker on a variety of ERISA and health law issues, ranging from managed care and alternative delivery systems to the extraterritoriality of state-mandated benefit and provider laws.

Mr. Fitzgerald is the author of several articles on health care issues, including "Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) Compliance Questions and Answers," Pension & Benefits Week, Research Institute of America (September 8, 1997); "Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) Compliance Checklist," Pension & Benefits Week, Research Institute of America (April 28, 1997); "The Developing Dilemma in Health Care Stoploss Reinsurance Regulation," CPCU Journal (1990); and "Employer Liability for Malpractice by PPO Providers -- The Tort of Negligent Selection and Retention," Benefits Law Journal 103 (1988).