

Chambers USA: 2007 Edition

Groom Top-Ranked Firm in DC; Five Groom Attorneys Honored
September 2007

Groom Law Group is recognized as the top-ranked Employee Benefits & Executive Compensation Washington, DC firm in the 2007 Edition of Chambers USA. Groom is noted as a, "premier boutique benefits firm" that provides "state-of-the-art advice and fabulous service" with a team that is "extremely reliable and responsive."

Clients say: "They are the best and have comprehensive specialists in every possible area at all levels. They are the best people to call."

Congratulations to the following attorneys who were individually ranked:

Gary Ford's practice centers on plan funding and restructuring. He is described by clients as a, "visionary, big-picture lawyer."

With the "ability to talk to any level of client and do any level of work," it's no wonder clients find Lou Mazawey "unpretentious and extremely effective" as well as "delightful." He specializes in plan design and taxation.

Jon Breyfogle focuses on ERISA fiduciary work. Clients appreciate his "really broad-based experience, both from a governmental and a technical legal perspective."

Executive compensation expert John McGuinness is praised by clients for being "incredibly knowledgeable, efficient and creative."

Andrée St. Martin is recognized by her clients as a Title I ERISA expert who can "field any question, from the mundane to the sophisticated" and is "terrifically bright, focused, creative and thorough."