2010 BENEFITS BOOTCAMP

Everything you've always wanted to know about employee benefits but were afraid to ask . . .

The Washington DC Metro Chapter of WEB Network presents this full-day educational program as an overview of employee benefits.

It is designed primarily for employee benefits professionals who are newer to the area of employee benefits, and it will be a refresher for seasoned professionals.

Benefit experts will speak on various topics, such as the different types of qualified retirement plans, nonqualified executive deferred compensation plans, health and welfare plans (e.g., short- and long-term disability), COBRA, FMLA, HIPAA, and much more, including the impact of recently enacted health care legislation.
