Elizabeth Thomas Dold

Principal

Elizabeth Thomas Dold's practice focuses on the Internal Revenue Code and related compensation matters, including employment taxes and other reporting and withholding requirements. She covers all types of employee benefits, including qualified plans, IRAs, governmental plans, nonqualified deferred compensation plans, and health and welfare plans. She assists clients in all tax-related aspects of employee benefits including Internal Revenue Service (IRS) filings, compliance audits, design of retirement products, reviewing marketing materials, plan corrections, nonresident alien reporting/taxation issues, taxation of settlement awards, restorative payments, lifetime income products, taxation and reporting of fringe benefits and welfare benefits, and employment taxes.

"She is insightful and gives spot on advice. She advises strategically. She always hits it out in the park. She gives very superlative advice and clear directions which is not easy..." –
