

Publications

2018 Brings New Mortality Tables and Tax Reform

ATTORNEYS & PROFESSIONALS

Elizabeth Thomas Dold

edold@groom.com

202-861-5406

PUBLISHED

10/01/2018

SOURCE

Journal of Pension Benefits

SERVICES

Employers & Sponsors

Retirement Programs

The year 2018 brings new mortality tables for defined benefit plans that will make annuity-based plans more expensive to maintain and de-risk. It also brings tax reform, which will take priority over other items listed on the Service's guidance plan. In the article linked below we summarize the new mortality table guidance, and take a look into changes to qualified plans embodied in the tax reform legislation.

2018 Brings New Mortality Tables and Tax ReformDownload