Groom Law Group is proud to be named one of the top Employee Benefits firms in Washington, DC by Chambers: USA Guide. Noted as the “premier employee benefits boutique in the USA,” both peers and clients commented on the depth of expertise.

Clients appreciate the “good financial analysis and practical solutions” Groom attorneys offer.

Congratulations to the Groom attorneys who were individually ranked:

Robert Gallagher “has been doing ERISA since it was created.”

Gary Ford focuses on the firm’s dealings with the agency and is viewed as a “tough, knowledgeable and widely respected” advisor.

Jon Breyfogle is “very knowledgeable on how to deal with the labor department” and focuses on the health aspects of employee benefits law.

Tom Gigot is “certainly one to look out for” according to sources and focuses primarily on litigation.
