Groom attorneys Shaun Gates, senior counsel, Kelly Geloneck, principal, and Ryan Temme, principal, will present at the American Bar Association (“ABA”) 48th Annual TIPS Midwinter Symposium on Employee Benefits, ERISA, Life, Health & Disability Insurance, and Insurance Regulation. The meeting will take place in La Jolla, CA from February 23 to February 24.

Shaun Gates will join the panel ERISA Civil Procedure Update on Friday, February 23 at 8:00 am PT. The panel will explore a range of civil procedure topics in ERISA matters and address the availability of jury trials in ERISA litigation, arbitration of ERISA fiduciary breach claims, and the latest on ERISA preemption.

Kelly Geloneck will speak as a panelist for Employee Benefits Hot Topics Part One: Plan/Policy Design and Administration. The panel will discuss hot topics and recent developments in employee benefit plan/policy design and administration.

Ryan Temme will moderate the panel Mental Health Parity and the No Surprises Act: Navigating the Latest Guidance and Enforcement Trends. The panel will examine the latest developments in regulatory guidance, litigation and enforcement of the Mental Health Parity and Addiction Equity Act of 2008 (“MHPAEA”) and the No Surprises Act.
