On Thursday, April 29, 2021, Groom litigation attorneys William Delany and Samuel Levin will be joining Strafford to present, “ERISA Arbitration and Class Action Waiver Provisions: Recent Court Rulings, Plan Amendments, Employment Agreements,” where they will provide ERISA and employment counsel, as well as plan sponsors, an in-depth analysis of key issues, such as:

- What explains the divergent results in recent lower court decisions regarding the enforceability of arbitration and class waiver provisions?
- How can plan sponsors ensure their provisions are enforceable?
- How to communicate any changes to employees
- What are best practices in deciding whether to include and how to draft arbitration and class action waiver provisions for ERISA claims?
