

News

ESG Issues Continue to Make Headlines

ATTORNEYS & PROFESSIONALS

Jacob W. Eigner

jeigner@groom.com

202-861-0181

George Sepsakos

gsepsakos@groom.com

202-861-0182

PUBLISHED

10/10/2023

SOURCE

401k Specialist Magazine

SERVICES

Employers & Sponsors

- Retirement Programs

Retirement Services

- Investment of Plan Assets
- Plan Services & Providers

In December 2022, we provided 401(k) Specialist readers with “A Closer Look at Biden Administration’s New ESG Rule.”

Since then, there have been significant developments on the issue. However, one thing that stakeholders have not been provided is certainty, as the regulatory and political landscape continues to shift on these issues.

In the 401k Specialist Magazine article, “ESG Issues Continue to Make Headlines,” Groom associate Jacob Eigner and principal George Sepsakos, leader of the firm’s fiduciary practice, describe regulatory and political developments in the ever-shifting environmental, social and governance landscape.

To read the article, click here.