SERVICES

On Tuesday, June 12th Groom will host a full day ‘fly-in’ meeting in Washington, DC. Guests will have the opportunity to network and exchange thoughts on the dynamic environment for retirement service providers, including recordkeepers, insurance and annuity providers, investment managers and broker-dealers. Focusing on the SEC proposals, action by state securities and insurance regulators as well as the Department of Labor, participants will hear from Groom lawyers and industry participants during roundtables where attendees can share industry-specific insights and experiences.
