Groom has been recognized by BTI Consulting Group as a BTI Strongly Recommended Midsize Firm for 2025. This recognition reflects direct feedback from corporate counsel who identified Groom as a firm they would confidently recommend to their peers. Based on in-depth interviews with leading legal decision-makers, BTI's research highlights firms that clients would endorse without hesitation.

Selection for this distinction affirms Groom's position as a trusted partner to clients across its core practice areas of employee benefits, health, and retirement law. Inclusion among a select group of midsize firms demonstrates the firm's ability to meet the evolving needs of clients while maintaining a strong reputation for responsiveness, quality, and strategic counsel. Groom remains committed to supporting clients in addressing their most complex legal challenges.
