As open enrollment begins and the end of the calendar year approaches, there are a number of “to do” items for sponsors to consider with respect to their retirement and health plans. These include adopting year-end amendments and distributing notices and other reporting. In a two-part webinar series on Thursday, September 19, 2024 our team of attorneys will devote the first segment on retirement topics and the second on health topics to discuss who should be thinking about what, and where sponsors may need to allocate time and resources.
