

News

Groom's Taylor Costanzo Wins 2022 Alvin D. Lurie Memorial Award

PUBLISHED
11/14/2022

SOURCE
ACEBC

SERVICES

The American College of Employee Benefits Counsel, Inc. (the “College”) has awarded Groom associate, Taylor Costanzo, the 2022 Alvin D. Lurie Memorial Award for her essay, “A Dream Deferred: An Analysis of the Current Retirement Landscape and the Changes Needed to Save the American Retirement Dream.” A highly competitive, prestigious honor that is given annually, the writing competition is designed for law students to acquire a greater understanding of employee benefits.

Costanzo was presented the award at the College’s 23rd Annual Meeting and Induction Ceremony on September 17, 2022 in Chicago Illinois.

The Alvin D. Lurie Memorial Award is funded by Dianne Bennett and other College Fellows. To learn more about the College, the College’s annual writing competition, and the Alvin D. Lurie Memorial Award, click here.

GROOM LAW GROUP

