In the Pensions & Investments article, “Few powering up with electronic disclosure,” which discusses the aftermath of the Department of Labor’s (“DOL”) May 2020 final rule that established a new e-disclosure safe harbor, Groom’s Jenny Eller discussed the likelihood that implementation will take some time.

“Record keepers are working to get things in place to take advantage of the rule as much as possible, as soon as possible, but it’s not happening in one fell swoop,” Jenny stated.
