Groom’s Executive Principal, Christine Keller, spoke with Law Practice Today in their Q&A column, “Making It Rain,” where she answered a series of questions and shared habits and practices that have contributed to her success as an attorney. Keller highlighted the importance of building meaningful connections in relationships, setting priorities, and being intentional, and also explored the importance of work-life balance, and how that balance allows her to be at the top of her game, both professionally and personally.
