Principal Lou Mazawey was named by Washingtonian magazine in its December 2018 issue as one of Washington, DC's Best Lawyers: Tax. With decades of experience working closely with and counseling clients on tax matters within employee benefits, Mazawey continues to serve as a leader in the industry, earning yet another recognition to add to his list of honors (Chambers USA, Legal 500, and The Best Lawyers in America, to name a few).

The list is compiled by surveying nearly 1,000 lawyers recognized in the publication's prior list, conducting additional research and reporting, and reviewing notable successes of the local bar. Recognition on the list is particularly noteworthy given that Washington, DC has the highest concentration of lawyers in the nation. To view the full list, click here.
