

News

Native Vision's Evening with the Stars

PUBLISHED

11/09/2007

SERVICES

On Friday, November 9, 2007, several Groom Law Group attorneys attended the 12th annual Evening with the Stars Fundraiser in support of Native Vision, a program designed to enrich and empower Native American Youth. Co-hosted by the NFL Players Association and Johns Hopkins Center for American Indian Health, the event included a silent and live auction of one-of-a-kind Native American art and sports memorabilia and featured performances by nationally acclaimed Tsimshian dance group The Killer Whale Dances, Native American flutist Ron Warren (Echota Tribe) and singer Janice Torres.

All proceeds from the event benefit a Native Vision camp held each June at an American Indian reservation. The camp attracts Native American youth from across the United States, bringing together professional athletes and children of all ages to participate in health and education programs designed by Johns Hopkins public health experts. Groom is proud to support such a worthy cause.