On Friday, December 15, the tax reform conference committee released its report on the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (H.R. 1). The House is expected to vote on the measure today, December 19, and the Senate is expected to vote shortly thereafter. For more information about the retirement, executive compensation, fringe benefit and health benefit provisions in the conference report and how they compare to the House and Senate bills, see our updated side-by-side summary.
