

Publications

View from Groom: Georgetown Win in Retirement Investment Suit May Help Other Schools

PUBLISHED

02/14/2019

SOURCE

Bloomberg Law

SERVICES

Georgetown University recently won a case challenging its retirement plan investments and fees, but the victory is just one in 20 cases filed against universities. In the Bloomberg Law article linked below, Groom Law Group attorneys David Powell and Mark Bieter explore the implications of the win, which might shift the way the courts look at the fiduciary duties required for the plans.

Georgetown Win in Retirement Investment Suit May Help Other Schools