Fiduciary & Plan Governance

In this webinar, Groom attorneys will discuss the Department of Labor’s proposed rule clarifying plan fiduciaries’ duties when considering investments that incorporate environmental, social, and governance (“ESG”) factors. Prior guidance on these factors shifted across successive administrations. The proposed rule codifies some of this prior guidance while adding new requirements for plan fiduciaries. The webinar will examine the proposed rule and its potential impact on retirement plans and the retirement plan industry as a whole.
